

GE edgelab— an enriching educational environment

"Working on high-level projects at edgelab is an intense, incredibly rewarding experience. It's an unprecedented environment that's given me a jump on advancing my career, interacting with Ph.D. faculty and collaborating with GE executives and enterprising MBA and undergraduate students. It's a winning equation for everyone involved."

Business and Technology Major*

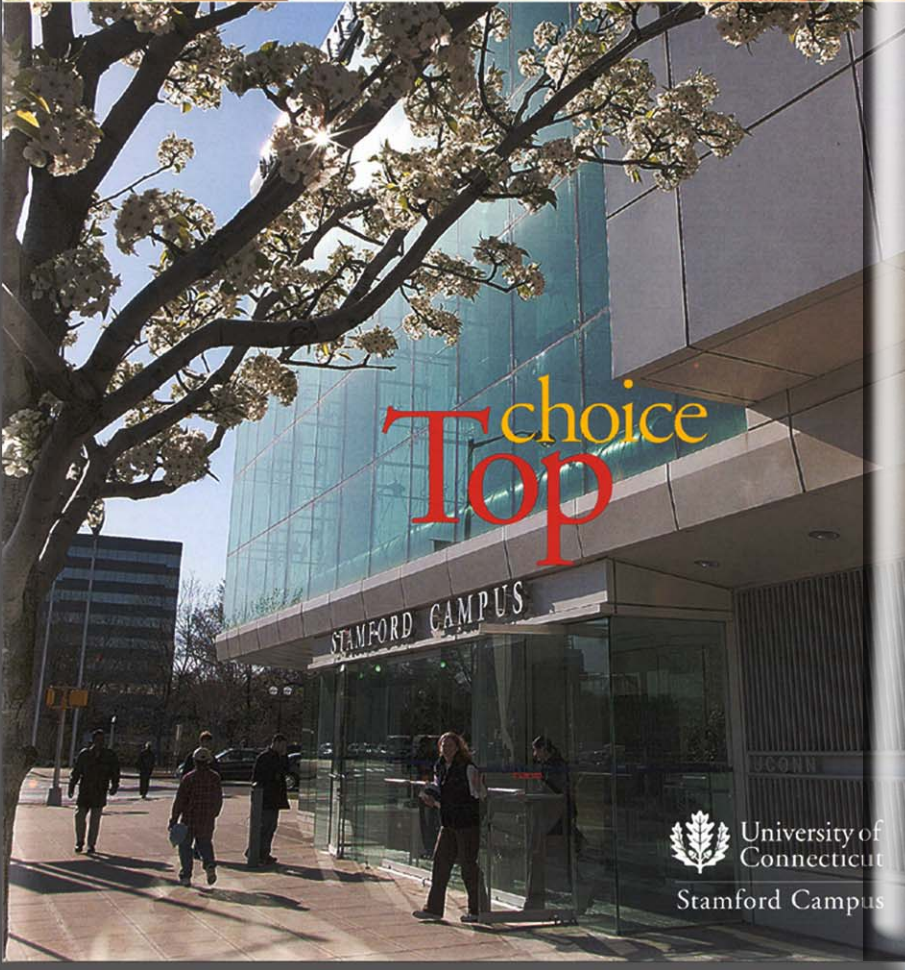

Be part of GE's e-business team. Participating students use cutting-edge tools to solve real challenges facing GE's top information technology executives. The GE edgelab is an approximately 10,000 square-foot multimillion-dollar information technology learning facility located on UConn's campus in Stamford. A model partnership between UConn's School of Business, CITI, and GE created the edgelab. It provides interested students with the opportunity to work closely with UConn faculty and GE executives, a great opportunity to enhance resumes and earn career-boosting references.

Providing the Best in Graduate-Level Business Programs
Business Week recently named UConn's Master of Business Administration program one of the best in the nation. U.S. News and World Report hailed UConn's MBA as the best in New England. Forbes says UConn's MBA provides one of the nation's highest returns on investment. And The Wall Street Journal elevated UConn to its list of top business schools. At UConn's campus in Stamford we offer an MBA in two convenient formats, as well as a post-graduate certificate.

- Master of Business Administration, a flexible part-time opportunity to gain a valuable MBA degree
- Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA), an intensified, 21-month program with classes meeting alternate Friday evenings and Saturdays, with a general business focus and post-graduate concentration option
- Advanced Business Certificate (ABC), four post-graduate business courses for managers/executives who have already earned an advanced degree

- Other Prestigious Graduate Programs
- Teacher's Certification Program for College Graduates
  - 6th-Year Certificate for current Connecticut teachers and administrators
  - Ph.D. in Education
  - Master's in Public Health
